

Holly Lodge
11-19 Science College
Sixth Form Prospectus
Success For All

Religious Studies

WJEC Eduqas A Level: Religious Studies
Examination Board (EDUQAS: 601/8700/1)
Studying the Subject/Subject Content:

The WJEC Eduqas A Level contains three components which include a wide range of topics for consideration, including an in-depth and broad study of one of the six major world religions, philosophy of religion, religion and ethics. examination

Assessment:

Component 1: A Study of Religion

Written examination: 2 hours
33% of qualification:100 marks

Component 2: Philosophy of Religion

Written examination: 2 hours
33% of qualification

Component 3: Religion and Ethics

Written examination: 2 hours
33% of qualification

What could you do after studying this subject?

A level Religious Studies is designed to enable learners to develop their interest in and enthusiasm for, a study of religion and its place in the wider world. The skills you learn in Religious Studies will be useful to you in a number of careers; teaching, youth work, journalism, civil service or government to name a few. If you're thinking of a career in law or medicine then a RS A Level is looked upon favourably for undergraduate courses too.

Subject specific entry requirements:

A good level of literacy as there will be lots of need for extended writing skills.

Suggested reading material:

